

The Information Technology department is responsible for all forms of technology. Some of which are computers and servers, telephones systems, audio visual systems, network infrastructure, wireless systems, web sites, software, surplus equipment and service to it's users. We currently have ten employees to handle this task.

To contact our help desk Call 947-6306 option 0